NOTICE

(Pertaining to the admission of the students in D.El.Ed Course, Session: 2022 – 2024)

The West Bengal Board of Primary Education is in receipt of several representations from various affiliated self-financed D.El.Ed Institutes pertaining to admission of students who failed to submit their application forms for admission through online portal, within the timeline stipulated by the Board.

The West Bengal Board of Primary Education has decided to admit such students upon checking their attendance in their Institutes.

Every Self-financed D.El.Ed Institute is hereby notified to submit the admission forms of their non – enrolled students for the Session: 2022-2024, through their institute log-in in between 24/06/2023 to 03/07/2023 with late fee of Rs. 3,000/- (Rupees Three thousand) only per student. The late fee shall be paid by the Institute and not by the student.

Having regard to the mandatory requirement of 80% attendance for theory classes and 90% for practical classes, every Self-financed D.El.Ed Institute must also submit the attendance of the candidates during the D.El.Ed Course for the Session – 2022-2024 in a prescribed format (to be downloaded from the log-in) with a photocopy/scanned copy of the attendance register as a proof of attending the classes physically by the students during the relevant period on and from 24/06/2023 to 03/07/2023 through their institute log-in.

It is only upon the satisfaction of the West Bengal Board of Primary Education through scrutiny/verification process on the application forms submitted and attendance of the candidates, will the digital Registration Certificates be issued to the students.
